TransAd does not guarantee specific bus routes for advertising. Buses are cycled through the system, traveling on different routes each day and some routes also have more than one bus traveling that route. Occasionally the buses are pulled off the road for service and/or general maintenance. If it is for an extended period of time, TransAd is notified by Kitsap Transit Dispatch so signage can then be relocated to alternate buses. We are unable to target an area more specifically than posting signs on buses usually located at a particular bus yard/base. Kitsap Transit has three designated bases – North Base, located in Poulsbo; Main Base, located in Bremerton; South Base, located in Port Orchard.
